

ROUTLEDGE
ROUTLEDGE
HANDBOOKS

The Routledge Handbook of Spanish History

Edited by Andrew Dowling

Introduction

Part 1: Medieval

1. The Reconquest in Spanish Historiography

Martín Federico Ríos Saloma

2. War in Medieval Spain: A Militarised Society?

Carlos de Ayala Martínez

3. The Transformation of the Medieval Iberian Economy 1200-1500

Esther Pascua Echegaray

4. Minorities in the Medieval and Pre-Modern Christian Spains

Brian A. Catlos

5. The Spanish Monarchy, 1450 to 1600

José Javier Ruiz Ibáñez

6. Spanish Imperial Expansion 1500 to 1600

Andrew W. Devereux

7. Spanish National Myths and their Conception of the Middle Ages

Vicent Baydal

Part 2: Early Modern

8. Economic Growth and Inequality: Three Centuries of Spanish Economic Development, 1500–1800

Fernando Ramos

9. Social Change in Early Modern Spain (1600-1800)

Raúl Molina Recio

10. Cities and Urban Life in Early Modern Spain

Marina Torres Arce

11. Spain's Political Relations with Spanish America in the Early Modern Period

Francisco Eissa Barroso

12. The Rural Worlds in Early Modern Spain: Different, Dynamic and Changing

Rosa Congost

13. British and French Influence and the Development of a National Market in Spain, 1650-1808

Guillermo Pérez Sarrión

14. The Press and the Emergence of Public Opinion in the Spanish Enlightenment

Elisabel Larriba

Part 3: Nineteenth Century

15. Spanish Political Development 1808 to 1868

Mark Lawrence

16. Spanish Foreign Policy 1808 to 1902: From Empire to Peripheral Power

Juan Carlos Pereira Castañares

17. The Idea of the Spanish Nation, 1808 to 1898

Ferran Archiles

18. Women and Gender in Nineteenth Century Spain. A History of Their Own

Mónica Burguera López

19. Spanish Orientalism

Angel Smith

20. Liberalism and Corruption in the Nineteenth Century: Money, Power and Connections

María Antonia Peña Guerrero

21. The Brains, the Guts, and the Numbers: Political and Ideological Conflicts in Spain (1845-1898)

Gregorio Alonso

22. Tradition and Modernity in Spanish Elections (1876-1923)

Rosa Ana Gutiérrez Lloret

23. Republicanism in Spain: The Struggle for Liberty, 1840–1931

Florencia Peyrou

24. Spain and its Colonial Wars, 1858 to 1927

Alfonso Iglesias Amorín

25. Women's Work in Contemporary Spain (1856-1930): Myths and Experiences

Cristina Borderías

Part 4: Twentieth Century

26. The Demographic Modernisation of Spain in the Twentieth Century

Andreu Domingo and Joaquín Recaño

27. Alfonso XIII: A Reckless Driver

Francisco J. Romero Salvadó

28. Cultures of Catholicism and Secularism in Spain, 1898-1939

Julio de la Cueva

29. The Anarchist Movement 1871-1939

Danny Evans

30. Peasant Men and Women in Spain, 1900 to 1936

Teresa María Ortega López

31. Transnational Influences on the Ideology of the Spanish Right, 1920 to 1936

Steven Forti

32. The Spanish Civil War

Miguel Angel del Arco Blanco and José Luis Ledesma

33. Conservatives and the Spanish Nation (1923-1978)

Alejandro Quiroga

34. Galicia, 1916-1982: Culture, Politics and Identity

Ramon Villares

35. Political and Cultural Identities in the Basque Country, 1930-1980

Antonio Rivera

36. Catalonia 1930 to 1980: Society and Identity

Jaume Claret

37. The Spanish Anti-Liberal Right and the Question of Gender, 1931–1975

Zira Box Varela

38. What was the Franco Regime?

Carme Molinero

39. The Franco Regime and its Responses to Social Change

Antonio Cazorla-Sánchez

40. Narratives of the Rural World and the Question of Modernity in Franco's Spain

Jean-Francois Lejeune

41. Political Cultures of the Spanish Left, 1939 to 1982

Pere Ysàs

42. Transnational Influences on Spanish Political Culture, 1960 to 1982

Paola Lo Cascio

43. The Transition to Democracy. The Creation and Crisis of a Myth

Xavier Casals Meseguer

44. The Spanish Civil War, Francoism and Historical Memory

Peter Anderson